A Dictionary of Euphemisms & Other Doubletalk is especially valuable for including many examples of actual usage and for the amount of attention given to origins of expressions and first-known uses. A general introduction explains the ways in which euphemisms are formed and how chains of euphemisms are created as one term succeeds another.

Crown-A Dictionary of Euphemisms and Other Doubletalk

Euphemisms are used to replace social taboos, swearing, blasphemy, profanity and other offensive language, but they can be used just to make a common word sound more sophisticated. Since euphemisms are indirect expressions, the apprehension of a meaning can be difficult.
