An acronym is a word or name formed as an abbreviation from the initial components of a phrase or a word, usually individual letters (as in NATO or laser) and sometimes syllables (as in Benelux).. There are no universal standards for the multiple names for such abbreviations or for their orthographic styling. In English and most other languages, such abbreviations historically had limited use ...

Introduction. Atlantis is the subject of a legend about an advanced island civilization that was destroyed or lost. Stories about Atlantis are first mentioned in Plato's dialogues Timaeus and Critias, in which characters say it was destroyed by an earthquake or a tsunami about 9,000 years before the time in which Plato wrote.
